Strengthens Families. Protects Lives.

The Metropolitan Drug Commission is a non-profit organization established by a joint resolution of the City of Knoxville and Knox County to unite policy makers and leaders to address community substance abuse issues. As the official primary drug abuse prevention partnership since 1986, the Metropolitan Drug Commission serves the community by educating; advocating for treatment and prevention; and providing a forum in which members from all sectors of the community come together to address alcohol, tobacco and other drugs.

Evaluation Services

As both public and private organizations are increasingly being held to a higher degree of accountability, evaluation services are in high demand. For years, the Metropolitan Drug Commission has collected and analyzed data to evaluate the effectiveness of programs to remain dynamic and to maintain a high level of accountability. These services are now available to outside clients as well. We will tailor our services to fit specific needs of an organization in both a timely and cost-effective manner.

The Metropolitan Drug Commission is pleased to offer the following evaluation services:

- Needs Assessment
- Survey/Instrument Design
- Data Collection
- Data Analysis
- Cost-Benefit Analysis
- Compliance Analysis with the Ten Key Components
- Recidivism Analysis
- Program Evaluation
- Development of Outcome Measures

Stephanie Armbrister Strutner, Epidemiologist and Evaluator for the Metropolitan Drug Commission, is currently contracted as lead evaluator for multiple Federal, state, and local programs (specific programs include community coalitions, Drug Courts, youth activities, educational programs, and law enforcement initiatives). Mrs. Strutner specializes in research design, evaluation, analysis, and reporting.
